

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY - SCHOLARSHIP

Gambia Horticultural Enterprises (GHE) in partnership with the International Trade Centre (ITC) through the EU Funded Jobs Skills and Finance (JSF) project for youth and women is offering a series of training programmes in agri-business for Gambian youth and women. The training programmes will be highly participatory with both theory and practical elements, including classroom, workshop, factory and fieldwork. Candidates are invited to apply for the various agri-business programmes offered.

All materials and equipment required for the training programme will be provided.

Training Location: GHE Farm and Multi-Purpose Agro-Food Processing Centre, Kembujeh in West Coast Region (WCR), GHE Agro-Food Processing Centres at Old Jeshwang (GBA) and Banjulinding (WCR).

Training Programmes:

- 1) Agro-Food Processing (8 weeks)
- 2) Vegetable Production (12 weeks)
- 3) Fruit Trees Orchard Management (12 weeks)

Selection Criteria: Applicants are required to:

- Be between 18 to 35 years old
- Have completed basic education
- Be able to read and write basic English language
- Be residents of North Bank Region, Lower River Region and Central River Region
- Be committed to learn and complete the program successfully.
- Cash for work beneficiaries are encouraged to apply

Returnees and Female candidates are highly encouraged to apply

Application Process

Candidates are required to complete the application form online through our website www.gamhort.com or www.yep.gm or visit Gambia Horticultural Enterprise office at Old Jeshwang after the GTTI Campus or agricultural offices or governors' offices in the regions for hardcopies of the application forms.

Completed application forms can be returned to GHE office at Old Jeshwang, Regional Agricultural Offices, Governors Offices or by email to info@gamhort.com

Contact Numbers: 7473000, 7279791, 2452086

Application Deadline: 30th NOVEMBER 2021

